

CME Requirements for DO's

In order to retain their Florida licenses, osteopathic physicians must earn a set number of hours of Continuing Medical Education (CME) credit.

For the licensure period beginning April 1, 2006 - March 31, 2008, each physician must complete a total of 40 CME hours, 20 of which must be Category 1-A.

Included in the 40 hours, there are five (5) mandatory hours required for Florida relicensure (each licensure period) and cannot be taken by correspondence. The following must be LIVE, PARTICIPATORY credits:

- 2 hours of Prevention of Medical Errors
- 1 hour of Risk Management
- 1 hour of Florida Laws & Rules
- 1 hour of Uses & Abuses of Controlled Substances

In addition to the above 5 hours, you are required to take 2 hours of Domestic Violence every 6 years. This may be taken by correspondence:

2 hours of Domestic Violence every 6 years starting 4/1/06

FOR NEW LICENSEES ONLY:

• 1 hour of HIV/AIDS must be taken before the end of your FIRST licensure renewal. All those that are not in their first two years of licensure are NOT REQUIRED to take an HIV/AIDS course.

REMEMBER: Any FOMA CME meeting you attend you will receive ALL of your MANDATORY hours and those hours will be reported to CE Broker and the AOA for you as a member benefit!

Licensure Periods:

(Previous) April 1, 2006- March 31, 2008

(Current) April 1, 2008- March 31, 2010

(Next) April 1, 2010- March 31, 2012

To help Florida's osteopathic physicians earn these credits, the FOMA holds two meetings each year. Our Annual Convention is held each spring in Fort Lauderdale and our Mid-Year Seminar is held each fall in Tampa. Discounts on registration rates are available to all FOMA members. Visit the website for more information and for conference dates: <http://www.foma.org/cme.htm>