

Continuing Medical Education (CME) is required for initial licensure and renewal. The chart below describes these requirements. CME coursework for licensees renewing by January 31, 2009 must have been completed between February 1, 2007 and January 31, 2009. Licensees should not submit CME documentation unless audited. Physicians and/or spouses in the military are exempt from the CME requirements.

All CME must be AMA approved category I, except for Domestic Violence and Prevention of Medical Errors. Domestic Violence and Prevention of Medical Errors courses offered by any State or Federal Government Agency or professional association including any provider of category I or II AMA continuing medical education will be acceptable.

This CME information is current for the renewal period ending 1/31/09

Required Continuing Medical Education
Initial Licensure	2 hours in Prevention of Medical Errors Education
First Time License Renewal	1 hour HIV/AIDS 2 hours in Prevention of Medical Errors Education
Second and Subsequent Renewals	38 hours general CME 2 hours in Prevention of Medical Errors Education
Every third renewal	2 hours in Prevention of Medical Errors Education. 2 hours in Domestic Violence 36 hours general CME For those whose license expires 1/31/09, the 3rd renewal will be 1/31/2011.

NOTE: End-of-Life Care and Palliative Care can no longer be completed in lieu of HIV/AIDS or Domestic Violence courses.

*Two (2) hours of Domestic Violence is required once every third biennium.